Table of Contents

1. Functional Testing Checklist

Functional testing is the primary testing activity that assures that all the features of the app are working as it is supposed to. It checks whether the application meets its goal or not.

2. yalakora app

Review for both assigned and non-designated tasks.

Sending and receiving texts while the app is running.

Rejecting calls while the app is running.

Reopening the app after an intrusion.

Compatibility with the desktop version of the application

The app's effect on the device's battery.

Sufficient restriction from making unnecessary actions.

Space used by the app.

Error issues with the layout/User Interface.

Functionalities like camera, screen resolution, and other such parts might differ depending on the kind or level of the mobile app

3. yallkora2

Ensure the app has been launched by downloading and installing it for use.

Verify that the mobile app display is adaptable to the device screen and also ensures all menus on the app are functioning.

Verify that the text on the mobile app is readable and clear.

Check that the app display is adaptable and amenable to the various display mode (i.e. landscape and portrait).

Verify that the app does not stop the functioning of other apps on the mobile device.

Verify that in the play screen, the back key allows the app to go back to the start-up screen.

Check that the app still operates as intended, if the device resumes from inactive mode or the lock screen.

Check whether the app reminds the user to save setting changes or changing of information before moving to other activities on the app.

Verify that the on-screen keyboard appears immediately the user attempt to enter a text.

Check if the app behaves as designed if the mobile device is shaken.

Verify that the app still functions as designed when "battery low" notifications appear on the screen.

Check that the app goes into the background when on call.

Check that the app still operates as designed when a message or notification pop-up from another app such as Facebook messaged, Instagram, etc.

If the app comes with a users' settings features, check if the app changes when some form of change is affected by the user.

4. home-page

Validation that history and donate options should be shown on the home page validation logo appear on home page validation news appear on homepage validation of ads working in home page validation of each news has image validation of clicking on image validation of click on text of news

validation of matchtoday appear on home page validation of the other modules appear in footer of page validation of clicking on logo

validation of clicking on other tabs

validation of all matches tab

validation of scroll of news

validation of image slider of news

validation of date of news be updated validation of matches be updated validation of clicking on name of league above matches

5. matches-tab

1-validate tab work

2-validate matches date update

3-validate history matches

4-validate next matches

5-validate calendar

6-validate that all matches are clickable

7-validate choose category of matches

8-validate matches been categorized infronte of user

9-check valid match details

10-check updated match details live

11-check the valid of match statistics

6. news tab

1. Header

a. Logo of the company- Check the Font size, color and spacing of the logo. Alignment, height, width and padding of the logo from respective sections. Basically position of the logo as per requirement.

b. Month of newsletter with year- Whether the month and year of newsletter is updated or not. Also alignment, font size, color and font type

c. Link to open the newsletter in browser – The link should be opened in the users default browser set. As well as hand icon should be displayed on hover of text which has link.

d. Header of the newsletter- Header of the newsletter should be distinct and should be updated under tag.

2. Content

a. Font type – Font type should be used as per requirement or the font which is commonly available or compatible with different devices.

b. Alternate font type- There should be alternate font type mentioned while coding as in any case user's device does not have particular font then alternate font will get supported and design will not get disturbed.

c. Font size – The font size should be updated as per client's requirement. The headers, sub- headers and content should have different font sizes and should be differentiable.

d. Font color – The font color should be as per requirement and should go with the theme.

e. Line height – Line height should be maintained as per specifications provided and suits the design of the newsletter.

f. Headers- Headers, sub-headers should be updated in proper tags like h1, h2 etc. e.g. heading 20, subheading 18, data, content 16 ….or as per requirement…. etc.

3. Spacing

a. Top spacing & Bottom spacing – Top & bottom spacing should be same till the requirement from the client says it should be as specified

b. Left side spacing & Right side spacing – Left & right hand spacing should be same till the requirement says it should be as specified

c. Paragraph spacing- The spacing between two paragraphs should be same or as specified by client

d. Image spacing – Images should be separated as per design provided by client

e. Spacing of sections within – The different sections within a newsletter should be separated as per design spacing provided by client

f. Content-Image spacing- Images in the newsletter and the content related to it or content before and after should be placed at suggested position.

4. Images

a. Image quality – Quality of images should be proper as if user increases the zoom level or minimize the quality of images should not be affected.

b. Image zoom – The image zooms in should not blur the image it should regain the content's clarity within.

c. Links to images – If any links provided to the images it should be properly updated and opens in new tab.

d. Titles of images/ Alt Attribute- If it will take time to load the images the title of the image should be displayed for which alt attribute should be used for image.

5. Links
a. Link target – All the links of the newsletter should be open in new browser window for which need to check what target has been set for link. E.g. target="_blank"
b. Link availability – All link should be provided by client as provided by client. No blank links should be displayed on the page.
c. Link configuration- For text which have linked to any URL should have a hand icon on hover. Also the Direct URLs displayed on page should be in blue color and it will change the color of the link to purple once user will click on the link.

6. Footer section
a. Social media links – social media links should be properly displayed. Link should open respective pages in a new tab and pop ups with proper window. Check the spacing between social media icons. The mail to and call to links should be properly working in all the views
b. Copyright text with current year- Copyright text should be mentioned with current or latest year. Check the font size, color and type of the text.
c. Contact link – Contact links of the organization should be properly displayed and opens proper pop ups or pages.
d. Logo of the comp- Check if logo is displayed in footer section or not, if yes, then check that the logo should be same as displayed at the header section; may differ in size although

7. botolat module

1-verify module open
2-verify all data appear
3-verify all images appear
4-verify scroll of page
5-verify clicking on any tab
6-verify name of each tab
7-verify arrangment of tabs

8. myteam module

1-verify module open
2-verify add team
3- verify delete team
4-verify edit team
5-verify add morethan one team
6-verify search for teams
7-verify teams filter
8-verify team notification
9-verify team logo
10-verify league of team
11-verify all data of that team
12-verify team selection button